HUCKABEE HITS THE AIRWAVES FOR MATAYO
Matayo for Congress launches media campaign with conservative message

SPRINGDALE — The Matayo for Congress campaign released its first television commercials this week, featuring the endorsement of former Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee.

In the commercial, Huckabee lauds Matayo as a battled-tested legislative leader with strong Christian values and says, “Doug Matayo knows how to win, even when the Republicans are outnumbered.”

Although Huckabee has endorsed in primaries across America during this mid-term election, he only appeared in a commercial for Matayo this cycle.

In a second commercial featuring the candidate, Doug Matayo talks about his desire to cut taxes, create jobs, and fight for conservative values in Congress.

“I’m not going to Washington to make friends, I’m going to pick a fight,” says Matayo. “It starts by repealing Obamacare ... I’m ready to embrace the battle for all we cherish, not run from it.”

The commercials can be found online at www.dougmatayo.com.

A small business owner, Doug, his wife Amy and their four children live in Springdale. As state representative, Doug led efforts to consolidate state government and opposed tax increases. He served as Gov. Mike Huckabee’s floor leader and received Huckabee’s endorsement for congress.
